In consideration of being allowed to participate in the U.S. Army Special Event (the "Event"), Participant agrees that prior to participating, Participant will inspect, in a reasonable manner, the facilities and equipment to be used, and if Participant believes anything is unsafe, Participant will immediately advise an official Event staff member (clearly marked on-site) of such condition(s) and refuse to participate until such condition(s) is corrected. Participant acknowledges and fully understands that Participant will be engaging in activities that involve risk of serious injury, including permanent disability and death, and severe social and economic losses, which might result not only from his/her own actions, inaction or negligence, but also the actions, inaction or negligence of others, the rules of play, or the condition of the premises or of any equipment used. Further, there may be other risks not known or not reasonably foreseeable at this time. Participant assumes all of the foregoing risks and accepts personal responsibility for the damages following any injury, permanent disability or death.

I, Participant, release, waive and discharge any and all claims of damages for death, personal injury or property damage which I or my heirs may have, or which may hereafter acquire, as a result of my participation in the Event's interactive activities or otherwise, and which may be asserted by me or on my or my heirs' behalf against the U.S. Army, the U.S. Army's event marketing and advertising agencies and the agents, officers, directors and other employees of each, other Participants, sponsoring and participating organizations and agencies and the officers, directors and other employees of each, advertisers, and, if applicable, owners and lessees of premises and/or equipment used to conduct the Event. This release covers the negligent use, maintenance, construction or design of all interactive activities presented by the United States Army, its agents and independent contractors and the negligent supervision of Participant's use of all interactive activities presented by the United States Army.
